

Pipe Rack Fabrication

Exxon Mobile Compression Project

Client:

Amec Black & Mac Donald

Engineers:

Saiwoo

Location:

Offshore Nova Scotia

Project Details:

Fabrication of 2 Pipe Rack Assemblies for Exxon Mobile's compression platform project.

The construction of these modules included the fabrication and erection of 120 tonnes of low temperature steel ,painting ,fire proofing . and the fabrication and installation pipe spools comprising A333 Gr 6, 316 L and Duplex stainless steel ranging in size from 2" to 30" diameter. The contract also include the installation of control valves ,electrical cable and instrumentation.

These pipe racks were fabricated in doors and transported to dock side for load out using heavy haul transporters

Contract value $3.5 M
Fixed price contract .
Work period December 2005 to May 2006

AECON + FABCO